

8. Clinical samples

The product for clinical testing is manufactured in the production facility and then sent to the laboratory.

ASM can manufacture the necessary test samples under GMP conditions for all clinical and preclinical test phases.

Production is carried out using original equipment produced on industrial production lines.

When working together with a qualified partner ASM can additionally carry out the selection and labelling of random samples.

> 9. Full scale batches

> back to overview

