

ASM Aerosol-Service AG

The validation of the manufacturing process checks whether the predetermined process parameters can be complied with and whether as a result a product of the specified quality can be produced.

The viability of the process is determined by an established validation plan; the results of the validation are described in a validation report.

- > 11. EU dossiers
- > back to overview

